2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. Supervisory Patent Examiner, Art Unit 2617

Continuation of 4(e) Other: Claim 1 specifically seems to have been amended without clearly identifying the amendments being made. For example, the claims preamble previously recited, "...gateway system having:", and now reads "...gateway system comprising:". It seems the word "having" has been deleted and replaced with "comprising", however there are no identifying strikethroughs and underlines to display this amendment to the examiner. Further in claim 1 it seems the "(i)", "(ii)", etc. have also been removed without being identified. The examiner notes that there may be other unidentified amendments to the claims and the amendment is therefore non-compliant and the applicant must provide the previous listing of claims clearly identifying the amendments being made. The examiner notes that claim 1 is merely an example and the applicant should check each claim for similar mistakes.
